“ I met Uncle Al just before my 21st birthday while serving in the Navy. He was very proud of being a Marine!! He threw me a birthday picnic which was very kind since we had just met. I brought a shipmate or two and when We got to house he had 20 YES 20 whole chickens roasting in this huge bbq grill which was a 55 gallon drum cut in half. We certainly had enough to eat and I am forever grateful for his kindness. He also took me to Santa Cruz in his Vette for a weekend. Fond memories of a good man and I salute you Marine. Rest In Peace.
