“ My deepest condolences to Angi, Louis and Mark on losing Anna so soon after her 100th birthday. I know she is finally with her husband, Louis and may she rest in Eternal Peace. It was my absolute pleasure to assist Anna and I learned alot and I've missed her and her stories. We had alot of fun, Anna was fun and feisty and I always told her how much she amazed me with never giving up. She was a sweet, strong and loving human being who I will miss dearly. I have the greatest memories with her. Life will be so different without her here but I hope the family finds peace in knowing she is home where she wanted to be. If I ever hear a little giggle or feel like someone touched my shoulder but nobody id there, I'll take comfort in knowing its probably Anna popping through to scare me, make me laugh or send me a smile if not all three. She always told me funny stuff about coming back to scare me as she would laugh because I spook so easily and she would break her heart laughing with me afterwards. I will miss you dearly Anna. You must be beside yourself and full of energy now that all those dreadful aches and pains are gone. Every time I see baby deer I will think of you and you know why. I'm just sorry I wasn't able to get back over to see you before your journey home. Rip and have a blast. Much love Always,
Cecelia
