“ I will never forget that we were pioneers of fantasy football before anyone knew what it was. And those pickup basketball games on Friday nights in the St. Mike’s gym. Those were great times. We didn’t keep in touch much after the fantasy football days ended but I still considered you as a friend. I didn’t learn about your illness until just recently. You will be greatly missed, buddy. Rest in peace.

“ I still can't believe the news. I worked with Ariel at Warren Hospital and later occasionally saw him working for Roche. He was always the kind of person to talk to about anything and so damn funny. Till this day I still think of him telling me to Let It Go. He was truly an one of a kind person. And who I can forget his Freshhh Christmas gifts? 😂 Hilarious! Will truly miss him like everyone else 😭

“Hearing about your passing really grief my heart. I still spoke with you about two weeks ago praying that the Lord Restore you. You are such an awesome man. I remember the first and only time i work with you in New Jersey teaching me how to work around the Equipment. With your gentle voice you taught me what to do. I still remember how you joke about everything. The bond we share for the week still last long in my memory. I pray that you find peace with your Lord and maker. Rest on ARIEL Till we meet again. The lord uphold your Family and all your loved ones.
