

Christopher S. Checho

October 30, 1973 - January 21, 2023

Christopher S. Checho, 49, of Bangor, PA, passed away on Saturday, January 21st in Philadelphia, PA, after a lifelong struggle with sickle cell disease. Born in Bethlehem on October 30th, 1973, he was the son of Salvatore and Anna Marie (Capobianco) Checho, of Bangor, PA. A 1992 graduate of Pius X High School, he went on to study Business at DeSales University and graduated in 2001. Despite his own challenges, Chris was blessed with enormous empathy and compassion for others. He was the first to ask how you were feeling even if he wasn't at his best and always demonstrated optimism in the face of adversity. He possessed a wry sense of humor, and his infectious laugh brightened any room. To say he loved sports would be an understatement. They were his passion and he spent time studying every statistic and nuance of any sport. While in high school Chris was the football team's manager and even overcame his physical limitations to join the baseball and basketball teams. He loved spending time with his father and they enjoyed their fishing trips around PA, NY, and Canada. He and his mother shared a love of gaming, and they forged lifelong relationships during their frequent trips to Paradise Island in the Bahamas and more locally, the Borgata Resort in Atlantic City and most recently Oceans. Although Christopher made friends wherever he was, he mostly enjoyed spending time with his close friends and family, especially his four nephews and a niece. He lit up the room wherever he went and will be sorely missed. Survivors include his parents, Anna Marie and Sal Checho, his brother Faust Checho, his wife Adriana and their sons Luciano and Massimo, his brother Frank Checho and his children Laith, Tala, and Jude. He was predeceased by his twin brother Craig, who died shortly after birth and both his maternal and fraternal grandparents.

“ I remember when we were at the cabin in New York and Chris was teaching me poker. He also helped me reel in a massive bass I caught. Chris was always teaching me odds and ends when we had time together and I'm grateful for that & him always.

“ *Dear Checho Family:
Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss. I remember a wonderful and very considerate Christopher when I was a clown visiting him on several occasions. He was so excited to show me, how should I put it, how brilliant he was. I thought he was going to show me something kids usually show clowns, but he was "over my head". I will NEVER forget him because he was exceptional and so extremely talented and nice. We will all see him again and I, for one, cannot wait until then. Sincerely, Lynn Fonte Smith*
