“ Dee Dee was a sweet, spunky and beautiful little girl who lived across the street from our family. She and our daughter had a lot of fun together but the memory that sticks in my mind was the time the two little imps painted Mr and Mrs Lily's sidewalk. They were made to scrub the paint off. Elissa was crying and Dee put her hands on her hips and asked “ what are you crying about, we only have to clean it” still brings a smile to my face. We moved and sadly lost touch but we were left with so many wonderful memories of the Durnin family. We are so sorry that you have to endure such tragedy. Now you have a special angel watching over you all. ❤️🙏
