*So sad to hear of the death of your beloved mom and my aunt.
I will always remember how she liked going out dancing, when many others were in their recliners, watching TV. I remember how she always got together with her sweet sisters, and I'm glad I got to know them through her.
She always had something light-hearted to say and I believe she enjoyed her life.
I hope you will take comfort in your memories of her, during this difficult time.*

*Deepest condolences,
Cindy LaPenna*
