

Harold W. Steinmetz

February 6, 1943 - May 4, 2025

Harold W. Steinmetz, 82, of Roseto, PA, passed away on Sunday, May 4, 2025.

Harold was born on February 6, 1943, in Mt. Bethel, PA, the son of the late Charles and Mary (Hopper) Steinmetz. He and his beloved wife the former Dorothy Martino were married 60 years last July.

He was a foreman for the former D&R Sportswear of Roseto for 22 years and worked for Achenbach Construction, Comunale Construction, and retiring from Hilltop Sales and Service. He enjoyed woodworking, hunting, hot rods, and old cars, being outdoors doing yard work, and farming when he was younger.

He was a member of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Roseto, and the Unite-Garment Workers Union.

In addition to his wife Dorothy, he is survived by two sons David of Roseto and Daniel of Pen Argyl, and grandchildren; David and Tyler, great-grandchildren Aiden and Madelyn, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was the last survivor of a large number of Brothers and Sisters.

Family and Friends may call on Thursday, May 8th from 6 to 8 PM and Friday from 9:30 to 10:30 AM, with Services at 10:30 AM in the Fiore Funeral Home, 230 Market Street, Bangor. The entombment will be in the Queen of Heaven Mausoleum, Roseto, PA.

Previous Events

Calling Hours

MAY 8. 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

Fiore Funeral Home
230 Market Street
Bangor, PA 18013

Calling Hours Friday May 9 from 9:30 to 10:30 AM

Funeral Service

MAY 9. 10:30 AM (ET)

Fiore Funeral Home
230 Market St
Bangor, PA 18013
(610) 588-2233
jafiore@fiorefuneralhome.com
<https://www.fiorefuneralhome.com/>

Tribute Wall

LF

“ Love, Cyndi, Erika, Bret and family purchased the Country Basket Blooms for the family of Harold W. Steinmetz.

Love, Cyndi, Erika, Bret and family - May 08, 2025 at 09:29 AM

WD

“ Steinmetz family so sorry for your loss. He was a delightful man. We were glad to know him. May he rest in peace

Wayne & JoAnn Dunbar - May 06, 2025 at 05:10 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Harold W. Steinmetz.

May 06, 2025 at 09:52 AM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Harold W. Steinmetz.

May 05, 2025 at 07:41 PM