“ Our condolences to Jane's family. We knew Jane through her work and subsequent ownership of Pennsylvania Eyewear Factory. Jane was always willing to work with her clients for the best eyeglass outcomes and she was always enthusiastic about her work. We missed her when the Eyewear Factory closed as we had been long time clients who just want you to know she made a difference to us and to many loyal customers, Deb and Tom Keller

“ I grew up a few doors away from Jane and her brother Ken on Park St. I was a few years older than her and I will always remember Jane as Ken's little sister. I spoke with her briefly about 8 years ago when we both joined the "1960's Centralites" Facebook group. It was nice to talk with her after so many years and to know that she was doing well.

So sorry for your loss! R.I.P. Jane.

“ We grew up together in the '60's and were good friends. I believe she had an apricot tree in her yard that we used to climb. My deepest sympathy to all her family and friends. I know she is missed.

“ As long as I can remember, Jane was a hard working person, whether she was flipping burgers at the drug store on N 7th street or selling shoes at Endicott and Johnson on Hamilton Street back in the day! She was a Mother of four wonderful sons who I'm sure will miss her dearly. Cheerleader, working, bringing up the boys, not sure when she ever rested. Well Jane, your resting in peace now.
