“ Chief Joseph Sica was more than just the Chief of Police to me. I met Chief Sica when I was eleven years old, delivering the Perth Amboy Evening News to his mother's house. Joe was the first police officer I met when I walked into Police Headquarters on what was the last day to file for the Civil Service exam for Police Officer in Carteret, the first thing he said to me was; "where's my paper for today"

We were close friends for the 30 years that I worked as a Police Office in Carteret, he was the last person I saw and said goodbye to my last day with the Carteret Police Department. We talked by phone several times after I had moved to Tennessee. out conversations were always pleasant and usually ended with laugh at old memories.

He will always be in my memories and prayers.

God be with you Chief.
