

Kevin A. LaBar

September 9, 1965 - May 13, 2025

Kevin Andrew LaBar, 59, died on Tuesday, May 13th, 2025 after a difficult battle with cancer. He was born on September 9th, 1965, the son of Sherwood and Patricia LaBar. Kevin was a lifelong resident of Bangor Borough, graduating from Bangor Area High School in 1983. He served his community as a firefighter with Liberty Fire Company for many years. He furthered his commitment to public service as an employee of Monroe County prison and Northampton County 911 telecommunication center. Most importantly, Kevin was a family man and the loving husband of 29 years to his wife Tracey. Together, raising their children, Joshua, (with his wife Alison), Rachael, and Landon. Over the years, as a family they learned of Kevin's passion for coaching football and baseball, refereeing the sports he loved, and his dog, Lola. He was able to pass on these passions to his children, but most valuably teaching the importance of family and love. He was the extent of all things compassionate and will be greatly missed by his loved ones, including his brother, Sherwood "Woody" LaBar, his wife Sue, and their daughters Stephanie, Julie, and Jennifer. His life will be celebrated privately amongst close friends and relatives with whom he shared his love. The family is welcoming a celebration of his amazing life and heartfelt condolences but wishes for privacy in this time of mourning. Services are under the care of the Fiore Funeral Home 230 Market Street, Bangor, PA. Online condolences may be offered at www.Fiorefuneralhome.com.
