“ My beautiful grandmother- there wouldn't be a me if not for you. Of course, literally that wouldn't be possible, but I mean you gave me all the best parts of who I am. I love you, and I'll miss you forever. I'm gonna grow my hair really long like you always wanted. Give Pa my love. I promise I will live the rest of my life making you proud and honoring all of the things you taught me.

You were one of the kindest, gentlest people who ever walked this earth. We were lucky to have you while we did. Thank you for raising me, teaching me, nurturing me, loving me, and never turning the other cheek. Your patience with me has taught me to be patient with others. The virtues you bestowed upon me have made me brave, and I'm so lucky to be your granddaughter.

Til we meet again.

“ I met Bobbie Dean in the early 60's on a school bus. I started hanging out on 123 St. Marie lived next door. She was always Bob's girl. One of the nicest people. Never hung out with the crazy kids. Over all sweet. We stayed in touch on Facebook. We talked once in a while. She will be missed. Rest in Peace, say hi to Bob. love you
