

Marie Trigiani

July 22, 2021

Marie Trigiani, 87, of Roseto, PA passed away peacefully Thursday July 22, 2021.

Marie was born in Roseto on April 14, 1934, a daughter of the late Anthony and Grace M. (Casciano) Pullo. She was married to the late Joseph V. Trigiani; together they shared 65 years of marriage prior to Joseph's passing on July 1, 2020.

Marie was a 1952 graduate of Bangor Area High School. She worked as a part-time seamstress at various blouse mills in the area. Marie was mainly a homemaker whose greatest role was that of a loving mother and grandmother. Marie's family was her number one priority in life. Throughout her life Marie maintained selflessness to the benefit of her family and friends. Marie's greatest joy was cooking dinners and having her family around the table, where there was always more than enough food "just in case somebody popped in!"

Marie was a devout Catholic and member of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church in Roseto, faithful to Mass and the parish's Miraculous Medal Novenas.

Marie is survived by her loving children, Caroline Giovannini and her husband, Anthony, and Vito J. Trigiani and his wife, Kimberly, both of Roseto. Marie adored and loved her two grandchildren, Andreama Giovannini and Anthony Giovannini, Jr., Esq. and his wife Gina. Marie was lovingly awaiting the birth of her great-granddaughter, expected Fall 2021. She is also survived by in laws, cousins, extended family, and her dear friends. Marie was predeceased by her dear brother, Dr. Frank A. Pullo.
