“Megan will be so missed at our little village. She always smiled & was such a happy soul. Dale & Pamela have been the best parents anyone could ask for & did everything they could with her. Now she is God's angel & watching over her parents. Spread your wings young lady....godspeed.

“ I was heartbroken to read of the loss of sweet Megan this evening. I was her English teacher in both 7th and 10th grades. I was lucky enough to show the Board how Megan’s ability to communicate improved with her new liberator! I will never forget her desire to work hard, whether in the classroom or during her various therapies. Her smile will always be a bright spot in my heart. My condolences to her parents and grandparents.
