

Menton O. Frable

September 30, 1929 - July 9, 2024

Menton O. Frable, 94 of Pittsburg, CA passed away at home on July 9, 2024. Menton was born in North Bangor on September 30, 1929, a son of the late Harvey and Flara (Rasley) Frable. He and his beloved late wife Caroline (Comunale) Frable who passed away on July 9th, 2016, were married for 66 years.

Menton worked as a handyman in his teen years and owned his own house when he was 16. He met Caroline when they were both working at a clothing factory in Bangor. Menton then got a job at the Bangor Slate quarry. He then worked at the Alpha Cement factory until it closed. He then worked for Taylor Warton for 15 years and eventually got promoted there to shop foreman. Even though he had full-time jobs, Menton worked as a General Contractor doing remodeling, flooring, and tile. He also built several houses from the ground up. He and Caroline moved to California in 1983 where Menton worked as a Superintendent of Facilities for the San Francisco School District for ten years. He was given a special commendation by the school district for the vast money, he saved the district over his tenure there.

He was a member of St. Peter's Martyr Catholic Church, Pittsburg, CA and formerly Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Bangor.

Menton is survived by his son Menton "Joe" his wife Debie and their daughter Avery of Redmond, WA. In addition to his wife Caroline, he was predeceased by sons David C. and Thomas A., sisters; Estelle Muth, Rosa S. Randall, Clara E. Frable, and Anna Mae Kessler, brothers; Joseph G., Harvey

R. Jr, and Woodrow.
