

Walter Richard Brahm

August 10, 1945 - July 24, 2024

Walter Richard Brahm, 78, peacefully passed away at his residence on July 24, 2024.

He was born on August 10, 1945, in Plainfield, NJ, the son of the late Arthur C. and Doris A. (Gabriel) Brahm.

He was raised in Mountainside, NJ, graduating from Governor Livingston High School in 1963. He later earned his Bachelor's in Elementary Education from Newark State College and his Master's in Guidance Counseling from New York University. Walter was a fun, creative, and outgoing teacher of K-12 students, which carried through to his later role as a student guidance counselor within the Piscataway School District of New Jersey for 36 years. After Walter's first year of teaching, he served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War from 1968 to 1970 in the 101st Airborne Division. Walter is fondly remembered for his sense of humor and compassion for his family's well-being. In addition, he is remembered for his long days of gardening, caring for his Koi Pond, and the brave early years of tent camping with his wife and three children.

Most of all, Walter leaves behind his supportive and caring wife of 52 years, Catherine Ellen Brahm. In addition to his wife, he is survived by his children; James Arthur Brahm and his wife Yvette Sosa, Creighton Lewis Brahm and his wife Didymaris and Catherine Jane Kromer and her husband James, four grandchildren who miss his support and sense of humor, Daniella Brahm, Gabriel Brahm, Levi Kromer, and Ella Kromer.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family under the care of the Fiore Funeral Home 230 Market Street Bangor, Pa. Online condolences may be offered at www.fiorefuneralhome.com.

“ To Cathy and family, My sincerest condolences on Walter's passing. He was a kind and compassionate man. Thinking of the time when David and I had dinner at your home and you served an impressive Baked Alaska for dessert. This was in the early 70"s. You shared a wonderful life together and I wish you strength and peace during this sorrowful time. Fondly, Lee Schmidt
